

NATIONAL DIALECT FESTIVAL 2020

This year's weekend will take place Friday 23rd – Sunday 25th October 2020, it will be hosted by The Lakeland Dialect Society and held at:-

NEWTON RIGG COLLEGE, PENRITH, CUMBRIA
CA11 0AH

All accommodation, meals and meetings can be held on the one site and we have arranged a group booking rate for the 2 nights at:- £132 per person for dinner, bed & breakfast on two nights and Saturday buffet lunch.

See separate booking form.

- Please request prices from Secretary if you only wish to stay only one night, or if you wish to attend on a daily basis and take dinner and lunch with no accommodation.
- Please also advise when booking if you have mobility issues so that ground floor accommodation can be reserved for you and also advise if you have any special dietary requirements.
- Non-residents are also welcome at our event and all meals can be booked separately.

We have the use of a function suite seating 150 and have over 100 single and 3 twin rooms available. To secure your place please pay a deposit of 30% ( see booking form for details) please contact our secretary/ treasurer, Jean Scott-Smith to reserve your place. The weekend we have booked is half term so the campus will be fully available to us.

Newton Rigg is part of Askham Bryan College and is a residential campus. It started as the Cumberland & Westmorland Farm School in 1896. Today it still offers a wide range of agricultural and land based courses along with many other subjects.

Newton Rigg College is situated on a 200-hectare estate, just 2 miles from Penrith and is easily accessed from Junction 40 of the M6, there is a main line railway station at Penrith (transport from the station to venue can be arranged if requested).

Please send your bookings using the separate booking form to our Secretary/Treasurer, Jean Scott-Smith, Gale View, Main Street, Shap, Penrith Cumbria CA10 3NH email lakespeak.jean@gmail.com or Tel. 01931 7616386.
